

Archie:

If that's what it is
Then that's what it is
You're probably right to just forget it
Let's face it you've worked so hard and now you're scarred
And free of any hope
I guess you should mope
Forget what you've planned
Hey, I understand

If that's what it is
Then that's what it is Though that's not the way I choose to see it
I have my own view that works with all these jerks and unenlightened
fools
I make my own rules, I do what I can
If I hit the wall then maybe it's all a part of the plan
Tomorrow will come, today will be gone
And so I put one foot in front of the other
One foot in front of the other
And just keep walking on

Patrice:
If that's what it is

Archie:
If that's what it is

Patrice:
What also is true

Archie:
What also is true

Patrice & Archie:
Is it may not always be disaster

Patrice:
I realize that now it is but how it is Isn't how it's gotta be Another day comes, another day goes
And if I get teased or hurt or lied to or punched in the nose
I say I won't cry
I cry until dawn
And then I put one foot in front of the other

Patrice & Archie:
One foot in front of the other

Patrice:
And just keep walking on

Evan:
I'm becoming a man
Maybe all that it means is
I face the world for what it is
And not what I wish it would be
I'm becoming a man
Watching everything fall into place
I swing, I miss
I'll get through this
I almost guarantee

One day I'll be thirty
One day I'll be fine
One day I'll make fun of this dramatic life of mine
One day I'll be older
And then I'll write a book
About the choices that I made

Patrice:
The choices that you made

Evan:
And the chances that I took

Patrice:
The chances that you--

Archie:
If that's what it is
Then that's what it is
At least until Disney can re-write it
We put our shoes and socks and take the knocks
And wish that it would change

Patrice:
And maybe it will

Evan:
And maybe it can

Archie:
Until then you trust that all this is just becoming a man

Patrice:
You take your best shot

All three:
Cause look what you've got

Patrice:
Go on and put one foot in front of the other

Evan:
One foot in front of the other

Archie:
One foot in front of the other
Evan:
One foot in front of the other

Archie:
For you and me and all of the others.

Patrice:
And just keep walking on
